ENTER A WILD HAVEN OF FAIRYTALE, MYTH AND EPIC

Mon 4 March 8pm Dog Almighty! by Emily Hennessey

Wild, irreverent, stupid, wise, dangerous and outrageously rude, Coyote has questions. Big Questions.

Looking for answers he crosses land and sky, pisses down rabbit holes, vomits up his siblings, cheats death, shits and shags and wreaks havoc everywhere he goes.

Emily Hennessey celebrates the great Native American trickster, the original creator and fool, riffing on the blues and high on himself. This will be raw, rough and close to the edge. (suitable 16+)

Mon 13 May 8pm Fairytales for Grown-ups – The Big Blind

by Dominic Kelly. Music by Bridget Marsden & Leif Ottosson

A boy stands on a lakeshore. Behind him is all he's ever known. Ahead is a chance for love but a much higher chance of death. He's had a happy life and a sheltered one. But his father has gambled away everything and the debt cannot be paid in money...

Dominic Kelly, Bridget Marsden and Leif Ottosson, weave together versions of an ancient fairytale from Norway, Scotland, Ireland and India into a playful and gripping musical performance, and ask what the consequences are for the young when older generations fail to make adult decisions.

Mon 10 June 8pm Fairytales for Grown-ups double bill

The Girl with No Hands & The Blacksmith at the Bridge of Bones

by Sarah Liisa Wilkinson & Ben Haggarty

Power, alchemy, wolves, male initiations, and lost daughters... surrender to a full-blooded double-bill of fairytale for grown-ups - fierce, unflinching and darkly comedic by turn.

Ben Haggarty & Sarah Liisa Wilkinson stray from the path in the company of a young man seeking the wisdom of a master and a young woman fleeing from a father who has forgotten the rules. Both are leaving home forever. Shot through with mythic imagery, limb-loss and wild transformations, this is a place where rules are not broken lightly.
