Crick Crack Club • Soho Storytelling Season No.9

The Crick Crack Club is 25 years old and we fully intend to spend the whole year celebrating. The Soho seasons continue with performances of epic, myth and fairytale from world-class storytellers and some of the UK's finest new talent. Welcome to the treasure house of myth, humour and romance.

8pm Wednesday 18th January TUUP with Sheema Mukherjee

The King and the Corpse: A king is obliged to carry the corpse of a hanged man on his back – but the corpse is not dead, it is possessed by a storytelling vampire, whose enigmatic puzzles threaten to burst the King's head into a thousand pieces... The magical storyteller, TUUP, and virtuoso sitar player, Sheema Mukherjee, both core members the wild world music collective Transglobal Underground, team up to tell transglobalised versions of these stunning, 2,000 year old tales.

8pm Tuesday 21st February Ben Haggarty with Sherry Robinson

Beauty and the Beast and other Lovers of the Rose: Ben Haggarty and musician Sherry Robinson (cello & hammer dulcimer) make a sortie into the unfathomable mysteries of the heart to ask 'do we choose love, or does love choose us?' This exploration of the intoxication and brutality of love, lust and betrayal draws together comedic games in paradise, a broken vow of chastity, a reunion in death, and culminates in an extraordinary retelling of a seemingly familiar fairytale for grown-ups, which will creep into your waking dream and haunt you with its beauty.

8pm Tuesday 20th March Dominic Kelly

Trickster: Delightful and dangerous, hungry for life and never to be trusted... On the edge of the road a figure wanders between the sunshine and shadows, keeping an eye to the main chance, or a way to slip the nets that trap the rest. Meet the comedian of myth, charlatan, shapeshifter and master of uncertainty, in this premiere performance - Come and journey on Trickster's side of the road. (Trickster is a 3monkeys commission, supported by Arts Council England).
